The RTN purchase page is our included Internet Ticketing interface. We have the ability to make minor adjustments to your RTN pages. We can add an image/logo in the upper left or add custom text to the left side of the page. We can also change the background and/or text style/color. If you would like us to add an image, please send it via email as an attachment and we would be happy to do so.

- Here is the xml feed:

<http://3.formovietickets.com:2235/showtimes.xml>

The xml feed is a live schedule feed that can be used by many 3rd parties to obtain schedule information. As for the text, let us know exactly what you want and we can make those changes as well. These requests can be sent to support@rts-solutions.com, in the following format:

1. Image/Logo as an attachment.
2. Text wanted to the left side of the page.
3. Background color.
4. Text font and color.
5. Any worded disclaimers that are needed at time of purchase.
6. Additional notes or comments on your layout desired.
